

2024-2025 Family Size Verification Worksheet

Your 2024-25 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was received and upon review, you changed or updated the family size information transferred from the IRS on the FAFSA. Therefore, our office needs to verify your family size. Please read below the directions for dependent and independent students and fill out the chart on the following page accordingly. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may be corrected. After the form is submitted and reviewed, the Financial Aid Office may ask for additional information.

Documents can be submitted via hand delivery in office, emailed to financialaid@esc.edu, or by mail to P.O. Box 1300 Enterprise, AL 36331.

Dependent Students

Family size includes the following:

- Yourself, the student
- Your parent(s) (include your stepparent if remarried), even if you do not live with your parent(s)
  - Exclude a parent who has died or is not living in the household because of separation or divorce
  - Include a parent who is on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces apart from the family
- Your siblings, if all of the following are true:
  - They live with your parent(s) listed (or live apart because of college enrollment);
  - They receive more than half of their support from your parent(s); and
  - They will continue to receive more than half of their support from your parent(s) during the award year (July 1, 2024 through June 30, 2025).
- Other persons, if the following is true:
  - They live with your parent(s) listed;
  - They receive more than half of their support from your parent(s); and
  - They will continue to receive more than half of their support from your parent(s) during the award year (July 1, 2024 through June 30, 2025).

Independent Students

Family size includes the following:

- Yourself, the student
- Your spouse, if applicable
- Your dependent(s), if all of the following are true:
  - They live with you (or live apart because of college enrollment);
  - They receive more than half of your support; and
  - They will continue to receive more than half of your support during the award year (July 1, 2024 through June 30, 2025).
- Other persons, if the following is true:
  - They live with you;
  - They receive more than half of your support; and
  - They will continue to receive more than half of their support from you during the award year (July 1, 2024 through June 30, 2025).

The provided criteria for “dependent children” or “other persons” align with the requirement that family size align with whom the student or parent could claim as a dependent on a U.S. tax return if the student or parent were to file a U.S. tax return at the time of completing the 2024-2025 FAFSA. As a result, the student or parent should not include any unborn children in the family size.

Warning: If you purposely give false or misleading information on this worksheet, you may be fined, be sentenced to jail or both. The law states that Enterprise State Community College has the right to ask you for information before you are awarded any financial aid. See the instructions in the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). ESCC must review the requested information (C.F.R. Title 34, Part 668, the student financial aid program rules).

The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is the only form that a student is required to complete to be considered for student assistance from any of the Title IV, HEA programs. No additional application or other request for information can be required by an institution in support of the student's request for Title IV, HEA program assistance, except for information needed to ensure the student's eligibility for such assistance (e.g., information needed to complete verification or to demonstrate compliance with the student eligibility provisions of the HEA and the regulations).

Enterprise State Community College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age in its admission, programs, and services in compliance with Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.
